About Me: With 37 years in public education and a lifelong love of music, Dan brings energy, professionalism, and a genuine people-first approach to every event. As a teacher, principal, leader, husband, and proud father of two, he understands the importance of creating meaningful moments and memorable experiences for families and friends.

Whether it's a wedding, school event, party, reunion, or celebration, Dan loves helping people have fun, relax, and enjoy the moment through great music and a welcoming atmosphere. Known for being friendly, organized, and easy to work with, he believes the best events are the ones where everyone feels included, celebrated, and connected. Music has always been a way to bring people together — and that's exactly what he aims to do at every event.
